The kingdom of God is like a mustard seed
that is the smallest of all the seeds.
But once it is sown, it springs up
and becomes the largest of plants.

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass
© 2001, 1998, 1997, 1986, 1970, CCD.

The Gospel of Mark is nothing if not a testament to the power of parables to illustrate the Good News through story. Jesus was a master storyteller who understood the importance of using images and concepts to which his listeners could relate. A seed, a mustard plant, would symbolize one of Mark's signature focuses: the Kingdom of God.

Centuries earlier, the prophet Ezekiel proclaimed most poetically to the Israelites, recently liberated from Babylonian captivity, that their God was still their hope, their comfort, their rescue, and their shelter. Those refugees would understand the image of the towering cedar as a symbol of their kingdom, cut down, fallen, captured. By restoring their kingdom, their God was giving them a new creation (the replanted shoot) and a new covenant.

THY KINGDOM COME . . .

Ezekiel said that God would tear off "a tender shoot" (17:22) for this replanting. What does this sound like? Why, Advent, of course, and specifically the words of the prophet Isaiah: "A shoot shall sprout from the stump of Jesse, and from his roots a bud shall blossom" (Isaiah 11:1); and again in Isaiah's Messianic texts we hear: "He grew up before us like a tender shoot" (53:2). Jesse was the father of the great king David and, as we know, Jesus came to be that tender shoot, that blossom, the new Davidic King whose throne, the cross, was once a tree.

God's incarnation in Jesus, born fully human, is the fulfillment of the promise to Ezekiel of the renewed and restored cedar, the new Kingdom. That new creation and covenant exists for us in the Church, through the Holy Spirit making the seed planted within us grow, flourish, and spread. Thus we have the faith and courage to be that visible sign of the Kingdom bringing hope and renewal to the world. We must live Kingdom lives before we can convince others to do so.

What is Ordinary Time?
Ordinary Time is a liturgical season. When we think of liturgical seasons we typically think of the major seasons of Advent, Christmas, Lent, and Easter. These seasons celebrate the incarnation, birth, passion, death, resurrection, and ascension of Jesus. Ordinary Time contain the rest of Jesus' earthly ministry and some of the major events of the Gospels we have come to know and love.

Why the word Ordinary?
The term 'ordinary' in our common use typically refers to something being plain, unimpressive, or unexciting. Ordinary, in this context, comes from the Latin term ordinalis, meaning 'numbered' or 'ruled'. Special occasions aren't the whole picture, just like there is more to the life of Christ than what we celebrate in other liturgical seasons.

When is the season?
Technically, Ordinary Time has two parts, but it remains one season. The first part begins right after the feast of the Epiphany and runs until Shrove Tuesday, the day before Ash Wednesday (when Lent begins).

The second part begins the Monday after Pentecost and runs until the First Sunday of Advent. This part is typically about twice the length of the first.

Ordinary Time typically contains about 33 or 34 weeks, depending on how other Catholic Church feast days fall. Each of these weeks is denoted by the passing of time.

What's the color?
The liturgical color for Ordinary Time is green. This is to represent the time of growth and expansion of the Church following the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus.

Together in Mission 2021
Forward With Faith
June 12-13

The Archdiocesan collection for schools and parishes in need, Together in Mission, is this weekend. Together in Mission is the annual opportunity for thousands of Catholics like you to recommit to building God's kingdom and investing in our local community. Some of our parishes and schools struggle to minister to their communities and others worry they may have to close their doors – doing so would affect thousands, were the need is greatest. This year, more than ever, our parishes and schools need your help. Please be generous.

Father's Day Cards

Father's Day cards will be available at the Masses this weekend. Please fill out the information and return the envelope with your offering. The names of your father and grandfathers will be remembered at each Mass during June.

Permanent Diaconate Information Day
Sunday, June 27 from 2PM-4PM

If you feel that you may be called to become a deacon, first we encourage you to reflect on it in prayer, then discuss it with your pastor. Most importantly, discuss this with an open heart with your wife and family, if you are married.

For Information and registration contact Deacon Melecio Zamora at: dmz2011@la-archdiocese.org

DID YOU KNOW?

Avoiding sexting and building healthy relationships

When teens start dating, they often feel pressure to keep up with their peers and to explore new romantic feelings. But these feelings, combined with teenage hormones and decision-making capabilities, can lead to some poor choices, including sexting. Sending nude images is dangerous and puts the sender and the receiver at risk. Photos can be shared instantly on cell phones and social media, and once out there, the images never go away. Talk to your teen about the consequences of sexting and the importance of building healthy relationships where partners respect boundaries and don't ask for explicit images. For more information, visit https://www.missingkids.org/content/dam/netsmartz/downloadable/discussion-guides/your-photo-fate-discussion-guide.pdf.

Society of St. Vincent de Paul Assumption Conference

Help Us Meet Our Goal!

5,000 POUNDS!...

St. Vincent de Paul has set a lofty goal for our food drive for the month of JUNE: 5,000 POUNDS OF FOOD DONATIONS!

Now before you think or say, "no way!"... Please know that our parish, and our parish neighborhood, along with the support of our GATORS have previously brought in 2,000-plus pounds of food.

Why the big push? During the pandemic the Assumption Conference has been working (while adhering to restrictions) with numerous Conferences and nonprofits, like our good friends at Friends In Deed. We have received more requests for food from the Altadena Community Church and St. Andrew's Parish. So, needs and requests are numerous.

For our St. Vincent de Paul Food Drive this month, we have committed ourselves to sharing food that is donated by splitting it between two pantries. We feel strongly that waiting till our next food drive in February of next year would be too long a wait for others who have sought assistance. Hence, we believe we can achieve more, and we are SEEKING YOUR LOVING SUPPORT in order to make it happen!

Our Conference thrives on spirituality and outreach. We reap joy from sharing talents and resources, and we know the potential exists to achieve more for those in need. Please remember: "WHEN YOU GIVE, THEY RECEIVE!"

St. Vincent de Paul Food Drive
Saturday, June 19th
10am to 12:30pm
North Lot, ABVM Church, Pasadena
Corner of Sierra Madre Blvd. & Orange Grove Blvd.
Items: rice & grains, beans, canned soups, cereal, peanut butter, tuna fish, non-perishables.

We invite our entire community to participate: West San Gabriel District; St. Phillip; St. Andrew; Sacred Heart; Our Lady of Victory; Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary School; Our Lady of Guadalupe; Pasadena Fire Department; Holy Family; St. Mark's Presbyterian; Pasadena Presbyterian … AND YOU ALONG WITH SOMEONE YOU KNOW!

Our Conference likes to say, "A Better Day, A Brighter Future." It is amazing what can be accomplished in a single afternoon. Working together, we can conquer at least a portion of the human misery that resides within our fair city.

Come join us, won't you?

Eternally, and without compromise…

Ananias Training Traveling with Others the Discipleship Path

Inspired by the important role Ananias played in St. Paul's journey to Christ [Acts 9:10-19], our Ananias Training will help parishes, homes, and apostolates become places where we can:

• recognize the stages of another's spiritual journey through compassionate listening.
• listen lovingly to their real questions and opinions about God in order to guide the discovery of how God is present and active in a person's life.
• talk about our relationship with God.
• share how we came to be a disciple of Jesus.

Zoom Sessions and Online Learning Platform

Dates: Tuesdays from 6:30 - 8:00pm
June 29 - Session 1 - Ananias for One Another
July 6 - Session 2 - No Two Journeys the Same
July 13 - Session 3 - Do Chat - Have a (Threshold) Conversation
July 23 and July 24, or July 24 and July 25 - The Great Story of Jesus Retreat
July 27 - Session 4 - Sharing your Story

Cost $35 for online access and material

Intended Audience
• Pastors and pastoral leaders who desire to move a parish culture toward mission by raising up individuals who can journey with others toward intentional discipleship.
• RCIA team members.
• Small group and table leaders of all types.
• Called & Gifted interviewers and small group leaders.
• Ministers to the sick and homebound.
• Parishioners who desire the confidence and skills to share their faith with family, friends, co-workers, etc.

A Tweet From Pope Francis

We cannot break bread on Sunday if our hearts are closed to our brothers and sisters. We cannot partake of that Bread if we do not give bread to the hungry. We cannot share that Bread unless we share the sufferings of our brothers and sisters in need. 6/7
